THANKSGIVING PHILANTHROPY
November 26, 2022 - 9:00am
Hellenic Center Ballroom & Kitchen

Let's all gather to complete our Thanksgiving holiday with wonderful activities of philanthropy to help those in need in our local Atlanta area. We will begin with prayer; a bagel breakfast will be available before starting the activities planned. All activities below will take place simultaneously.

Sandwich Preparation for Soup Kitchen in downtown Atlanta: This team will be preparing sandwiches for the homeless people in downtown Atlanta who rely on Trinity Methodist for assistance with food. Our Annunciation Cathedral has been a long-standing supporter of Trinity Methodist with our preparation of sandwiches, as well as providing hot meals and soups in the past.

Bags of Love Assembly: This has been a constant and continues to be well-received and enjoyed participant event! The homeless recipients of a Bag of Love will have various items of food, hydration, snacks (and a sweet) plus hygiene items, including socks and underwear in their backpacks! We will work in teams for this event!

Children: Our children will color Christmas cards and will create 100 Breakfast Bags which will be handed out to the Homeless who line up on Christmas eve and New Year's eve mornings at Intown Collaborative Ministries.

This event is open to all -
a great Family event!
Plus, there are no age restrictions!

P.S. Thanks to all for your donations to the "Spare a Pair" Socks and Underwear Drive!
Your donations are being included as part of this day of philanthropy!
